School Divisions Renew Commitment to Safer Communities

The Good Spirit School Division and Christ the Teacher Catholic School Division invite the media to attend the Community Threat Assessment and Support Protocol Re-signing on November 24th, 2016 in the National Bank Convention Place, convention room A at the Gallagher Centre in Yorkton at 3:15 p.m.

This protocol supports collaborative and proactive planning among community partners in assessing and reducing the risk of violence to keep our schools and communities safe. It fosters timely sharing of information and the development of supportive and preventive plans.

Community Threat Assessment and Support Protocol reflects the work of J. Kevin Cameron, Executive Director of the Canadian Centre for Threat Assessment and Trauma Response, the Yukon Threat Assessment Program and, the Alberta Children and Youth Initiative.

The original Community Threat Assessment and Support Protocol was signed in September 2013.

Please take the time to join us at the Gallagher Centre on Thursday, November 24th at 3:15 p.m.

For further information, contact Quintin Robertson, Director of Education, at 306-786-5500.

The Good Spirit School Division provides education opportunities to more than 6,000 students operating 29 schools in 17 communities throughout East Central Saskatchewan. Caring for children in a supportive environment is as important as offering excellence in educational programming. Our public schools value belonging, respect, responsibility, learning and nurturing by ensuring "Students Come First". Visit us at www.gssd.ca; contact 306-786-5500 or 1-866-390-0773.
