CORDAE CREE

APRIL 2025

Cordae Cree, a Grade 9 student at Canora Composite School, is a kind, creative, and hardworking individual who brings a positive energy to the school community. He is a natural leader and mentor, always ready to support his peers both in the classroom and during extracurricular activities.

Cordae excels in Arts Education, particularly in drawing and drama, where he showcases his vivid imagination and storytelling abilities. He also puts forth his best effort in other areas, especially in Physical Education, where he demonstrates both skill and great sportsmanship.

One of Cordae's greatest strengths is his kind and caring nature. He is known for always looking out for others and has a unique ability to make people feel included and supported. He naturally steps into mentorship roles, guiding and encouraging others with patience and enthusiasm. Cordae takes great pride in being recognized for his dedication and hard work, and his positive influence helps foster an inclusive and supportive school environment.

With his creativity, leadership, and caring nature, Cordae truly deserves to be recognized as a Featured Student in the Good Spirit School Division!
