CARING & FRIENDLY - EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS - EXPRESSING EMPATHY - SINGLE POINT OF CONTACT - THE POWER OF "YES" - TAKING TIME TO LISTEN

Jennifer Bisschop's dedication to her students and colleagues, passion for sustainable education, and commitment to inclusivity have profoundly impacted the Canora Composite School community. Her leadership was key in the school receiving the RCESK Education for Sustainable Development Recognition Award and the "Lyle Benko Future Generation Award," bringing pride and recognition to our school.

Jennifer also introduced the Fish in Schools (FinS) program, setting up a fish tank in the library with support from the Buchanan Wildlife Federation and Canora Fish and Game. This project has enriched students' learning experiences and connected them with nature.

Known as a "safe place" for students, Jennifer is always available to listen and support those in need. Her warmth and approachability make her a reliable figure for comfort and guidance. She fosters inclusivity by creating bulletin boards that celebrate diverse cultures, ensuring every student feels valued and respected.

Jennifer's efforts to support staff unity through team bonding activities have strengthened our school community. Her dedication to sustainability, inclusivity, and community support has created an environment where students thrive academically, socially, and emotionally!
